Congressional Convention.
The Democratic Convention to nominate a candidate for Congress in this (10th) District, will be held at KENDALLVILLE, on Thursday, August 13th, 1857, at 10 o'clock. By order of the Committee.

W. W. MARTIN, C.A.

Fort Wayne Sentinel.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 8, 1857

Rev. J. O. BARRETT, of Maine, (Universalist) will preach to-morrow at the Court-House. Services to commence at 10 1/2 A.M., and 7 in the evening.

FREE SCHOOL.—Arrangements are making for the erection of another Free School House in the western part of the City. It will be as large or larger than the present one, and will be quite an ornament to that part of the Town. The construction of the building is to be commenced immediately, and a portion of it finished in time to be used the ensuing winter.

Fusionist Convention.—The fusionists held their congressional convention at Kendallville yesterday, and nominated Charles Case Esq., of this city as their candidate for Congress. Charley is a tolerably clever fellow, but a little too crazy on the nigger question to have much chance of success now that the Kansas humbug is exploded.

Change of Time.—The time has been changed on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne, & Chicago Railroad. The trains for the west now leave here at 5.45 A.M. and 4 P.M., arriving at Chicago at 1 P.M. and 11 P.M., arriving at the east 'Leave at 4.28 A.M. and 3.45 P.M., arriving at Pittsburgh at 6.08 A.M. and 7.34 P.M.

THE PRESIDENT is now sojourning at Bedford Springs, in the enjoyment of excellent health, but he perseveringly declines all public display and receptions.

The Cemetery.—The project of a new cemetery for this city is attracting considerable attention among our citizens at present. All are agreed on the necessity which exists for a new and more extensive burial ground, but there appears to be a diversity of opinion as to the most desirable location.

The committee who have had the matter in charge, have taken considerable pains to examine various tracts of land which have been suggested, and report in favor of a piece belonging to Mr. Fleming, adjoining Becker's Mill, as being better adapted for the purpose than any other which has come under their observation. Some object to this on account of its distance from the city, and the inconvenience which will always be experienced in having to cross the railroad tracks. We trust the subject will be carefully weighed and considered before any final action is taken, and such a site adopted as will be generally satisfactory.

In another column we give a communication on the subject to which we direct the attention of our readers:

A public meeting will be held at the Court-House on Tuesday evening next to take the matter into further consideration.

County Convention.—Our convention, last Saturday, was well attended, and on the whole showed a good state of public feeling. An attempt was made by R. J. Dawson and R. D. Turner to control its action, but it signally failed. The business was all out and dried by these wretches, and they hoped to forestall the action of the convention, and foist on the democracy a set of delegates to the Congressional Convention who would betray the trust confided in them. In this they were failed, as such attempts deserve always to be.

The delegates were instructed to vote for Dr. Sturgis as long as there was a hope for his nomination, and then for Mr. Lowry, as the second choice of the county—or, in other words, were not to vote for Dawson under any circumstances.

These resolutions were adopted with the most enthusiastic acclamation, which must have sounded as a death knell to the intrigues of the two Reubens. They are strict accords with the feelings of the democracy of the county. Dr. Sturgis is undoubtedly their first choice, and Mr. Lowry their second. Some friends of the latter gentleman, in the north, had insisted, as we thought, rather too strongly upon his nomination; but he disclaims any unkind feelings of jealousy towards Allen County, and his whole past course sustains him and entitles him to our confidence. If he should receive the nomination, he will be cordially supported in this.

Fort Wayne Western Railroad.—At a meeting of the Board of Directors, held in this city last week, Hon. R. C. Schenck was unanimously reelected President, and Lott S. Bayless Vice-President for the ensuing year. No better selection could have been made. Mr. Schenck's high reputation, business tact, unweakened attention, promptness, and energy, admirably fit him for the responsible position, and will enable him to carry through this great work to a successful and speedy completion. Mr. Bayless, too, has long been an active and zealous advocate for this road, and has perhaps done more for it than any other man.

The question of the final location of the road was settled at this meeting. The line will run from this place via Springfield and Millersburg in Whitley Co., Rochester, Wimberley, and Rensselaer, to such point on the Illinois State line, as may be selected for the eastern terminus of the Illinois Western Airline Railroad.

We stepped into Messrs. Robb & Co.'s, who have a thriving confidence that, guided by the principles of the Democratic Fathers, he will be a wise, fearless, and patriotic course, maintain the Union as based upon the Constitution, securing to each and every portion of the confederacy all the rights guaranteed to them by the compact which made one people.

Resolved. That the Democracy of Allen County, the administration of James Buchanan, both in its foreign and domestic policy, and have a strong confidence that, guided by the principles of the Democratic Fathers, he will be a wise, fearless, and patriotic course, maintain the Union as based upon the Constitution, securing to each and every portion of the confederacy all the rights guaranteed to them by the compact which made one people.

Tennessee Election.—Returns indicate Democratic gains throughout the State. The Legislature probably Democratic. Returns not sufficient to determine the Congressional result.

Kentucky Election.—Kentucky has fairly redeemed herself and entered the democratic ranks. Eight democratic members of Congress, including Hon. James B. Clay, are elected. A majority of the Legislature; and some 4,500 majority for the Democratic State Treasurer.

The election in Louisville passed off with comparative quiet. There were a few riots and assaults, but no general massacre. A large portion of the naturalized citizens were deterred from attending the polls. Had they persisted in voting, the dreadful scene of 1855 (which were so zealously defended in the Times by our consistent friend Turner,) would doubtless have been re-enacted.

Mr. Dawson is rather unfortunate in his selection of tools. Such men as Turner and McGonigal cast more than they come to.

The Ohio Statesman of the 27th, announces that that paper will remain under its old management, some misunderstanding in regard to details having prevented the consummation of the purchase by Col. Manypenny.

The Jeffersonian and the County Convention.

The unfortunate Mr. Turner of the Jeffersonian is in a peck of troubles this week, and seems as odds like a distracted old lady with a house full of unruly children. His great ignorance seems to be that he was not allowed to go as a delegate to the Congressional Convention. It was doubtless a great disappointment, but he knows the democrats here have no confidence in him he ought not to have expected it.

He and his friend Reuben J. sought to pack the convention, and in a private caucus had arranged its whole plan of action. The people expect the arrangement, and concluded to do their own business, as they had an undoubted right to do. The dreadful clique, which haunts our friend like a nightmare, had nothing to do with it—was the spontaneous action of the representatives of the sovereign people, assembled from all parts of the country.

We have no room, nor do we think it necessary, to follow the whining and falsehoods of this discredited renegade, and point out his falsehoods and inconsistency. What he says about the clique and outside interference certainly comes with a poor grace from a man who had sought to usurp the whole functions of the Convention and render it a farce, and expected to thrust himself upon it as a delegate, when every man knew he would betray his trust. There is, however, one arrant downright falsehood, upon which he bases much that he says again. Mr. Sturgis, which it may be as well to correct. He says the resolution endorsing Dr. Sturgis, merely recommended and not instructed, "In that form it was adopted by the committee, and in that form it passed the convention." This is an utter falsehood. We have examined the original resolution reported by the committee, and the words is clearly and plainly "instructed." There has been no erasure or alteration; instructed is the word, and "recommend" does not and never did appear upon the resolution.

There are other falsehoods equally glaring which we do not think worth alluding to. They are gross enough to strike every reader without being pointed out. As to what he says about us, we have no reply to make. The people here know us both, and we are willing they should be a diversity of opinion as to the most desirable location.

Turner's strong affinities with Know Nothingism have led him to seek to destroy and disorganize the Democratic party. The people see it, and he knows the mask has fallen off. Last week he showed the cloven foot; this week the horns begin to appear; and next week we shall expect to see the tail unloosed and whisked in the face of those whom he has deluded. His race is nearly run.

We are not much in the habit of noticing unnecessary communications, but there is one in the Jeffersonian that perhaps deserves a little notice. It is falsely signed "A Fort Wayne Democrat." We say falsely, for no Fort Wayne democrat wrote it. This misnamed democrat repeats the lie that our convention recommended and not instructed our delegates; and has much to say about that terrible clique. These we let pass. But one thing perhaps demands notice. In alluding to our remarks Dr. Sturgis could not get the democratic vote of Allen County—a mere statement on our part of a notorious fact—he tortured it into a threat that Dawson should not get that vote, and that if he got the nomination we and the everlasting clique would go over to the Know Nothing to defeat him. This is not only a gross perversion of our language, but the writer knew he lied when he penned the article—Neither we nor any of the much deluded clique have ever bolted a nomination, or gone over to the enemy. Can Mr. Dawson or his champion say as much? Or can we give us any assurance that our joining the Know Nothing would necessarily infer a hostility to Mr. Dawson?—some have doubts on that question.

Frank L. Furtse was nominated for Auditor. He is a young man of good abilities, unquestionable integrity, and excellent character; and having been for several years engaged as clerk in the Auditor's office, he is familiar with the details and abundantly able to discharge them. The sale of Robb & Co.'s, while he is a Catholic and foreigner. We do not see what a man's religion has to do with this office, nor why a Catholic cannot as well discharge its duties as a Protestant. American claims to be a free country and a land of liberty, and any attempt to proscribe a man for his religious faith ought to be sternly rebuked. As to the charge of being a foreigner, we are not aware that it ought to operate against him. He had been raised among us from his childhood, and all know his worth. He is entitled to our support and confidence, and we earnestly hope he will receive the vote of every democrat in the county.

Mr. F. L. Furtse was nominated for County Commissioner. Of him, it may be sufficient to say that no better man could have been found in the district. He is a democrat of the true Jackson stripe, and answers the requisition of being honest and capable. To strong common sense and sound judgment, he adds great firmness and impartiality, and will guard the interests of the county faithfully, and conduct its affairs with prudence and economy. We look upon his nomination as fortunate for the county.

Tennessee Election.—Returns indicate Democratic gains throughout the State. The Legislature probably Democratic. Returns not sufficient to determine the Congressional result.

Kentucky Election.—Kentucky has fairly redeemed herself and entered the democratic ranks. Eight democratic members of Congress, including Hon. James B. Clay, are elected. A majority of the Legislature; and some 4,500 majority for the Democratic State Treasurer.

The election in Louisville passed off with comparative quiet. There were a few riots and assaults, but no general massacre. A large portion of the naturalized citizens were deterred from attending the polls. Had they persisted in voting, the dreadful scene of 1855 (which were so zealously defended in the Times by our consistent friend Turner,) would doubtless have been re-enacted.

Mr. Dawson is rather unfortunate in his selection of tools. Such men as Turner and McGonigal cast more than they come to.

The Ohio Statesman of the 27th, announces that that paper will remain under its old management, some misunderstanding in regard to details having prevented the consummation of the purchase by Col. Manypenny.

Congressional Convention.—The Noble Co. Democrat seeks to shield Mr. Dawson from the charge of hostility to Allen Co., by proving that it was a few persons in Fort Wayne—that big-a-hoo slogan—that he was opposed to, and not Allen Co. This is a bold falsehood, his words were much impeded as to ethics insanity over after. The editor knows, and so does Mr. Dawson, that there is no such clique here, and that it was against the interests of the entire county that those efforts were directed, for which that paper sought to create much capital in other parts of the district. Mr. D. is understood and appreciated here, and though the editor of the "Democrat" affects to disbelieve that he is unpopular in this county, he might have convinced himself of the fact if he had been at our convention last Saturday. If his boasted strength in other counties has no better foundation than his pretence in this county, he is undoubtedly the weakest man that could be put on the track.

What is in the Wind?—The Times this week has a laborious article in defense of R. J. Dawson, and also speaks quite complimentary of Mr. Turner and the Jeffersonian. It does not say Z-bray once; nor has Turner anything to say about the "Maniac Press." This is truly a strange conjecture—but we suppose it is all in the garnish, and shall expect next to see the Times and Jeffersonian united. Things squint that way pretty strongly.

R. J. Dawson has got a queer lot of supporters. The joint efforts of such a trio as J. W. Dawson, R. D. Turner, and W. C. McGonigal, are enough to daunt any man, and cause him to be looked upon with suspicion by all good democrats "Birds of a feather," &c.

Allen County Democratic Convention.—Pursuant to previous notice, the delegates from the several townships convened at the Court House, on Saturday, August 1st, at 11 o'clock A.M. for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Auditor, a Commissioner for the 2d District, and delegates to attend the Congressional Convention to be held at Kendallville on Thursday, the 13th instant.

The convention organized by appointing Judge A. Metzger, President; and U. S. Taylor and James McElroy, Vice-Presidents; and John Shafer and O. P. Morgan, Secretaries.

On motion of P. Notestein a Committee of five were appointed to draft resolutions—consisting of Messrs. P. Notestein, John Dolen, P. J. Wise, L. Wolkie, and F. Nirdlinger.

Also a committee of five to report names of delegates to attend the Congressional convention—consisting of Messrs. Wm. McKinley, Joseph Stratton, John Hurch, Simeon Biggs, and A. A. Wilbur.

The Convention then adjourned until 1 o'clock, P.M.

At 1 o'clock, P.M. the convention again convened, and proceeded to the election of a candidate for County Auditor—Messrs. P. J. Wise and J. Stopher acting as Tellers. The balloting resulted as follows:

1st Ballot 2d Ballot 3d Ballot.

Frank L. Furtse 59 62 77

Wm H. Eckles 40 45 56

Sam'l Edsall 35 31 13

J. D. Werden 14 7 1

74 votes being necessary to a choice, and Frank L. Furtse having received 77 votes, was declared duly nominated candidate for Auditor.

The delegates from the 2d District then met in caucus to select names for nomination for County Commissioner for said 2d District. Whereupon the names of Messrs. Theron M. Andrews, Jacob Shatt, and M. Dolan were selected and reported to the Convention.

The Convention then proceeded to vote, which resulted as follows:

Theron M. Andrews received 77 votes.

Jacob Shatt 17

M. Dolan 3

Theron M. Andrews was therefore declared duly nominated candidate for County Commissioner for the 2d District.

The committee on resolutions reported the following:

Resolved. That the Democracy of Allen County, true to their principles as set forth and embodied in the platform of the National Democratic Convention held in Cincinnati in 1856, and of the State Convention held at Indianapolis in 1856, do hereby reaffirm the same as embodying the great principles which secure the best interests of this great nation, and sanctioned by the people in the glorious and triumphant election of James Buchanan and John C. Breckinridge to the Chief Magistracy of this Republic.

Resolved. That the Democracy of Allen County, the administration of James Buchanan, both in its foreign and domestic policy, and have a strong confidence that, guided by the principles of the Democratic Fathers, he will be a wise, fearless, and patriotic course, maintain the Union as based upon the Constitution, securing to each and every portion of the confederacy all the rights guaranteed to them by the compact which made one people.

A boy of six children were telling their mother what they had at school. The eldest said, "The teacher was talking about steam communication." "And what do you mean by that?" said a father, who was at that time only a boy. "I mean that the teacher has a steamship in his pocket," said the boy.

"My! Oh, I gets ready," said the boy, and spanked his mother.

At a railway station a boy said to a very pompous looking gentleman, "What are you talking about steam communication?" "Papa sir, what is steam?" "Steam, son, is all steam is eat and steam is eat." "I know that steam couldn't get you said a rough-looking boy by." "But steam is a bucket of water in a tremendous temperature."

We have heard a tall story of an Irish knight who was once disputing with a French courier as to the stand and standing of their families when the latter, in a huff, said to the argument, said that his wife were in the ark with Noah. "That's nothing," said the Hibernian, "for at the day go my forefathers were cruising about in a boat of their own."

A collision occurred on one of the roads leading in the city some time ago. The road in question is celebrated for curvatures. The engineer was thought to be to blame, and accordingly he was taken to task by the superintendent. "Did you see the light?" said the superintendent. "Yes?" replied the engineer, "but I thought it was the other end of the road."

A fellow who considered rather soft speaking a rather day of the many inventions which have been made by the present generation would up with:

"For my part, I believe every generation grows wiser and wiser; for there's my father, he know'd more 'n my grandfather, and I believe I know a little more 'n my father did." "My dear son," remarked a by-stander, "what an old fool your great grandfather must have been!"

An old bachelor editor down East, gets off the subjoined ill-natured hit at the women. An editor says that he was probably jilted in his youth:

"It is a woman and not her wrongs, that ought to be redressed."

The greatest organ in the world, is the organ of speech in a woman. It is an organ without stops.

Mahomet de Girardin is more than a match for this organ, when he sings.

Oh, a foolish man, you may find one stupid, and a foolish woman, you may find one stupid.

It is a good wife, according to Plutarch, should be a skilful player to represent her husband's face and soul; if he is pleasant, she should be merry; if he laughs she should smile; if he looks sad, she should partake in his sorrow, and bear part with him and so should they continue in mutual love one toward the other.

There are many persons who delight in playing the fool, but who get angry the moment they are told so.

Common sense is such a rare commodity that the world has entered into a tacit compact to live without it.

Cure for Sommer Complaint.—Take a handful of strawberry leaves and pour on them half a pint of boiling water; let it remain one hour and strain the tea. You cannot get the hot boiling water, pour it, and swallow the juice. It rarely fails to give immediate relief, and performs a permanent cure.

Edgar Smith, in Milwaukee, was fined $3 for kicking a Dutch girl weighing 240 pounds. The fine was done in the presence of her husband, who said, "I was so mad I could not speak."

Minister, spare mine now; Knock not his heartie cheek,

Or if you kiss him, kiss his cheek,

I hit you in'ts stick.

Conventional Convention.

The Democratic Convention to nominate a candidate for Congress in the 11th District will be held at KENDALLVILLE, on Thursday, August 12th, 1857, at 10 o'clock. By order of the Committee.

W. W. MARTIN, C. M.

Fort Wayne Sentinel.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 8, 1857

Editor J. O. BARKER, of Maine (University) will speak to-morrow at the Court House. Services to commence at 10 A. M., and 2 P. M.

Free School.—Arrangements are making for the erection of another Free School House in the western part of the City. It will be as large or larger than the present one, and will be quite convenient to that part of the city. The construction of the building is to be commenced immediately, and a portion of it finished in time to use the ensuing winter.

Political Convention.—The friends held their congressional convention at Kendallville yesterday, and nominated Charles Case, Esq., of Indiana, their candidate for Congress. Charles is a slender fellow, but a little too crazy on the bigger question to have much chance of success now that the Kansas humbug is exposed.

Change of Time.—The time has been changed at the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne, & Chicago road. The train for the west now leaves here at 3 A. M. and 1 P. M., arriving at Chicago at 1 P. M. and 3 P. M.—Trains for the east leave at 4:28 A. M. and 3:45 P. M., arriving at Pittsburgh at 6:48 A. M. and 7:31 P. M.

The President is nowjourning at Bedford Springs, in the enjoyment of excellent health, but he pensively declines all public display and reception.

The Cemetery.—The project of a new cemetery for this city is attracting considerable attention among our citizens at present. All are agreed on the necessity which exists for a new and more extensive burial ground, but there appears to be a diversity of opinion as to the most desirable location. The committee who have had the matter in charge, have taken considerable pains to examine various tracts of land which have been suggested, and report in favor of a piece belonging to Mr. Fleming, adjoining Bowser's Mill, as being better adapted for the purpose than any other which has come under their observation. Some object to this on account of its distance from the city, and the inconvenience which will always be experienced in having to cross the railroad tracks. We trust the subject will be carefully weighed and considered before a final action is taken and such a site adopted.

We say "no," for our Wayne does not appear upon the resolution.

There are other falsehoods equally glaring, yet to be held at Kendallville on Thursday, the 13th inst.

The convention organized by appointing Judge being pointed out. As to what he says about us, A. Motter President; and U. S. Taylor and James we have no reply to make. The people here Motter, Vice President; and John Shad know us both, and we are willing they should

O. P. Morgan, Secretary.

On motion of P. Notestein a Committee of five were appointed to draft resolutions—crossing of Messrs P. Notestein, John Dolen, P. J. Wise, F. W. Wallin, and F. N. Nodding.

Read and Reflect! Stuttering and Stammering

Periodically edited by

DR. J. N. NELSON.

Without Pain or Surgical Operation.

WHO can be consulted: — The M. Y. House in Port Wayne, Ind., Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, August 11th, 12th, and 13th. Also, at Columbus, Ind., Aug. 14th, 15th and 16th; Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 17th and 18th; Plymouth, Ind., Aug. 19th and 20th; Laporte, Ind., Aug. 21st, 22d.

I will see all who are troubled with this painful affliction. Stuttering and Stammering — or those having any impediment of speech, just as I will give them an opportunity to come and be relieved.

My cure never fails, and costs but a small amount, and is a well known secret in the organs of speech. A sufficient sum of this, and in my peculiar mode of treatment, that I will charge nothing when I fail to cure — which can be tested by the patient.

Speaking and Reading with freedom and ease.

Any person who is cured by me can never have Stutter or Stammer, by application of the remedies, even if they try. I will give $500 to any one who can do so, and give a large sum of the same to produce any other remedy by which Stuttering and Stammering can be permanently cured. Children of five years of age treated by me with success, as well as adults of any age. The remedies which I prescribe, were discovered by myself and are secret. The most remarkable success, which I can testimonial in my hands, from persons cured and others, will show to the entire satisfaction of any reasonable person.

One or two hours generally sufficient to produce a permanent cure, and the patient can then speak as I would expect to make my price to come within their means. Therefore, say! Come one, come all — and be relieved. The expense incurred by persons coming from a distance, be duly considered.

I will collect the cure is sure and certain. 16¢

PEVER AND AGUE.

FOREMOST among the various remedies for these disorders stands

Dr. Shallenberger's Antidote.

A few doses will cure any ordinary case, and ONE DOSE invariably stops the Chills. It contains nothing in the least degree hurtful to the system under any circumstances, and never produces the unpleasant effects that attend the use of Quinine, or any other similar remedy. It can be used in the treatment of fevers, &c. It is the original and only antidote for malaria.

Allen County, 1857.

PETITION FOR DIVORCE.

Hours A. G. and Caroline M. Cham.

I appearing to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the Allen Circuit Court, by affidavit filed, that said defendant is a non-resident of the State of Indiana, and the defendant in a non-resident of the State of Indiana.

The defendant is therefore hereby notified of the filing and service of said complaint and that unless he can appear before the Judge of said Court, on the first day of the next term of said Court, he will be held in default.

And, that he can appear before the Judge of said Court, on the same day, and answer or defend, and to be heard in his defense, the same will be heard in his absence.

I, D. G. NELSON, Clerk.
